DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 03/02/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The Examiner has thoroughly reviewed Applicant's arguments but firmly believes that the cited reference reasonably and properly meets the claimed limitation as rejected.

Applicant's argument – "The classification is not based on a value representing a confidence-weighted correlation between a known bit pattern and data from a position of the frame."

Examiner's response – First, the definition of "a confidence-weighted correlation between a known bit pattern and data from a position of the frame" is not defined in claims and specification. Therefore, the relation between the SYNC(1) and SYNC (2), which determines the classes (present or absent of speech) and is a relation between a known bit pattern and data from a position of the frame, reads on a confidence-weighted correlation between a known bit pattern and data from a position of the frame.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sato (US 5,710,772).

As shown in figures 1-5, Sato discloses a method of classifying a received data frame as belonging to one of a plurality of possible classes (case 1, case 2, and case 3 in figure 5), each of said classes having corresponding formats wherein a known bit pattern (for example, SYNC (2)) is located in different respective positions within said data frame, said method comprising:

receiving said frame (figure 1);

computing a first value (line quality for case 1) representing a confidence-weighted correlation between said known bit pattern and data from a first position of said frame (column 6, line 23-column 7, line 12, wherein the relation between the SYNC(1) and SYNC (2) determines the classes (present or absent of speech). The relation reads on a confidence-weighted correlation between SYNC (1) and SYNC (2)), and classifying said frame as belonging to a first class or a second class based on said first value.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 12-22 are allowed.

5. Claims 2-11 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: the prior art fails to teach and suggest a method of classifying a received data frame as belonging to one of a plurality of possible classes, comprising determining D1, D2 and calculating the ration R steps as recited in claims 12 and 16 and computing a second value as recited in claim 2 and using DTX or CDVCC, and Euclidian as recited in claims 7, 8 and 9, respectively.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
